I had the pleasure of meeting Neil Barnard in the winter of 2009 and immediately we became friends. Over the years we exchanged hunting stories and photographs of our expeditions and successes half a world apart. I myself never dreamed that I would have the ability to hunt in Africa until I met Neil and learned that it very much was a possibility. In 2011 I purchased my hunt and have been on two safaris with NB Safaris. They have been everything I imagined and then some. Like many others who have gone before me... I plan on returning.

The facilities are second to none and the staff are amazing. From the patience, knowledge, and skill of the Professional Hunters to the drive of the support team and trackers, your hunting experience will be exciting, thrilling, and successful. Once the day is done, you can relax at the lodge with a cool drink, a game of billiards, and share hunting stories with like minded friends. Your chalet is both modern and very comfortable. Your laundry will be attended to, and your meals are all prepared by professional chefs. From the moment you get off the plane until the moment you check back in for your return flight, South Africa will amaze you and NB Safaris is definitely the group of people to help make your African Safari come to life.

The hunt you purchased is a donated hunt that accommodates two hunters. Call your favorite hunting partner and be ready to share the experience of a lifetime. Bring a camera or two, your lucky hunting hat, and be prepared to see a wide variety of game. Your Professional Hunter will do their best to make sure your crosshairs end up on the trophy animals you will forever treasure on your wall at home.

Should you have any specific requests with regards to diet, meals, additional time in South Africa before or after your safari, or having a non-hunter accompany you, please don't hesitate to contact Neil or his staff and everything possible will be done to assist you.

I look forward to helping answer any questions as you plan your dream safari into South Africa.

There's Sooooo much to do, where do I start???

Here is a checklist from start to finish to help guide you through the process of planning and preparing for your safari. Feel free to pull this document from the packet or ask me for another copy for your reference and ease.

Travel veteran or a first timer... you may find this reference sheet to be instrumental in not skipping a step and ending up stuck between a rock and a hard place

Keep one packet for yourself and find your favorite hunting buddy to hand the second one off to. Now it's time for the two of you to plan for the hunt of a lifetime!

You can book your hunt through Neil or through his office staff. If you would like, I can assist you with this process as well. Let us know at this time if you are a rifle hunter or a bow hunter.

E-mail your completed reservation forms to NB Safaris . Include as much information as you can as it will help them serve you better.

Wire your deposit to the account of Daniel Barnard. The banking information is in your NB Safaris folder. The amount of the deposit will be subtracted from your final account at the completion of your safari.

Secure a U S passport or make sure you're not up against needing a renewal. This can be a lengthy process so please don't wait until the last minute.

Check with a travel doctor for recommendations regarding inoculations. (You may want to ask your doctor for the name of a travel doctor). Do this as soon as possible, since a series of shots may be needed. Be prepared for some costs. A prescription for Malaria tablets and at least some inoculations can be anticipated in some cases.

Make travel arrangements. Consider a travel agency if you're not completely confident in your abilities to book your international travel on your own. I suggest checking out Delta Airlines flying through Atlanta since they offer a direct flight to Johannesburg.

I highly recommend purchasing the travel insurance through the airline. It's a small price to pay when you book your flights well in advance. Life can be unpredictable.

Check your medical insurance policy and make arrangements for international coverage if it is not already included.

E-mail a copy of your flight itinerary to luke@nbsafaris.co.za

Send a colored copy of the picture page from your passport to luke@nbsafaris.co.za

Double check the list of suggested items to bring. This list can be found within this packet.

Purchase or borrow a heavy plastic or metal gun case, as this will be required by the airline.

Decide on your hunting weapon appropriate for the game you're planning to hunt. Neil recommends a 30 caliber firearm with 180gr bullets. For dangerous game, check with Neil and he will make recommendations. Some hunters wish to bring a second rifle as a backup. Rifles and ammunition are available for rent through NB Safaris should you choose as well.

Make sure you have a CBP 4457 forms (through US Customs and Border Protection) completed for any high dollar items that have a serial number. This includes your weapons. To do this, I went into the Sacramento Airport's Customs office with my items (rifle was in a soft case) with my ID. Fill out the form and the official behind the counter will confirm the serial numbers, STAMP (make sure this happens) and sign the form. Do not wait until the last minute to do this as I learned that the officials aren't always in the office when they say they will be. These forms also never expire. These forms are also available online. You can google "CBP Forms" and find the 4457. It is available to fill out and print online to save you time while in the office, but it must signed and stamped before being considered valid. My recommendation is to staple these forms to the inside of your passport on the back cover and possibly have them laminated.

If you expect to need electrical service (to recharge camera, camcorder or shaver batteries, or use a hair dryer), an adapter and voltage converter will be needed. I took two of them with me so I had a spare since they are only about $20-25 each. They can be found on amazon.com as well as Radio Shack.

Taxidermy: Please see the monograph "How your Trophies are Processed" immediately following this checklist. It contains all of the information you need regarding the entire process.

I strongly recommend making use of the Meet and Assist service that can be hired for expedition through Customs in Johannesburg's airport. This can be arranged through either the Afton Guest House or through contact with Luke Gerhart. This service includes being met at the airplane and assisted through customs. To book this service, the following items will need to be provided:

Passport photo page in a clear scan showing your image (notarized)

South Africa Police form (SAPS520), with the required portions completed

A copy of your flight itinerary

An Invitation Letter from the outfitter (this is the included in your NB Safaris folder)

Your CBP 4457 customs form (notarized)

The current cost is US $130 per hunter

A RSA customs form may be given to you prior to landing in South Africa. This form asks for your destination in SA. The information you may use is: Sterkrivier, Limpopo Province.

I suggest making notes of your personal medical information and carrying it with you during your travel.

It is suggested that you include copies of these items in with your checked luggage.

Copy of passport

Copy of your driver's license and other ID

Copy of completed SAPS520 Form

Copy of airline ticket

Copy of Invitation Letter from NB Safaris

Copy of CBP4457 Custom Form

Copy of your air travel itinerary

Receipts for traveler's checks

Please realize that your booking is not a confirmation and the dates are not reserved for you until NB Safaris has received the following items:

Deposit

Completed Reservation Forms

Color Copies of the picture pages from your passports

Please submit a copy of your flight itinerary to NB Safaris no less than five months from the date of your reserved Safari. This can be sent to your Hunt Coordinator, the office, or to Neil himself.

NB Safaris
How Your Trophies are Processed ... the Ins and Outs
For
United States Hunters
By
NB Safaris Professional Staff

1. Purpose. This paper explains how your trophies are prepared, processed, crated, transported, and cleared into the United States by the US Fish and Wildlife Service, and finally delivered to your home for display. This is intended to be a seamless process for hunters using African Expressions Taxidermy.
2. NB Safaris. Trophies are skinned per the hunter's instructions for mounting. After skinning, trophies are dried in a salt bed and on racks. The proper documentation has been prepared by the NB Professional Staff. Remember, that before you departed, you put down a deposit for the taxidermy work.
3. Taxidermist. Routinely picks up trophies and requisite documentation and transports to studio for mounting. Approximately 8 months later the work will be completed and you will be notified by African Expressions Taxidermy of the balance due. Once paid, the trophies are ready for shipment.
4. Crating and Shipping. SBS Logistics collects the trophies and requisite documentation and carefully packs and crates them for air shipment to the USA. Colleen Stanley is the owner. This is a real work of art in itself. They are one of the best in the business. Once crated, SBS notifies the client of packing, crating, and shipping fees. Once paid, SBS delivers the crate(s) and requisite documentation to Delta Airlines for shipment to the US. You will be given an Air Bill number so you can track the shipment on the Delta web site.
5. Insurances. SBS recommends that they insure the shipment. They automatically insure the shipments for the value of the invoice African Expressions Taxidermy provides after final payment, plus the cost of the freight, plus 10%. In this way should anything get damaged en route to destination they can file a claim. The insurance company will charge an excess of 1% of the value claimed with a minimum of USD 250. The hunter has to endorse the delivery note if there looks like any damages to the outside of the crate. However he will not have time to inspect the contents, so he also needs to endorse the delivery note "contents not checked." When he then opens the crate and finds damages he can advise the delivery company or trucking company or airline, depending on if he collected from the airline himself or it was delivered. He will also need to advise SBS Logistics. They will then put the insurers on notice that a claim is pending.

6. Delta Airlines. Delivers crate and documentation via air freight and truck to nearest receiving airport. You'll know when shipment gets there by looking at web site or receiving phone call from air freight.
7. US Fish and Wildlife Service. USFWS issues permits and inspects the trophies and documentation at the air cargo receiving office. There is a current fee of $135.00 for this. The receiving entity, hunter or Broker, must have an import license to receive the trophies (Import of Sport-Hunted Trophies) have filled out USFWS Form 3-177, Declaration for Importation or Exportation of Fish or Wildlife. In order to get the Import License you have to apply using USFWS Form 3-200-20...and there is a fee... the License is good for two years. If you are good at paperwork and will continue to import trophies, go for it ... otherwise, engage a Broker. Finally, in most cases, USFWS Form 3-200-2, License/Permit Application Form: Designated Port Exception Permit is required. CBP (Customs) will also have to clear your shipment after USFWS clears it (no fee). You'll owe local air freight $50 or so.
8. Broker. Takes care of everything required in Para 6, above, and arranges for cartage. Broker does charge a fee.
9. Cartage. Most crates can fit in the back of a dually pickup truck. If you can't borrow or rent one, hire a cartage (trucking) firm to truck the crate to your garage. The Broker can arrange for cartage. Depending on crate size and number of crates, the cartage firm will charge accordingly.
10. You, the Hunter. Here they are, in a crate, filling most of a bay of your garage. Now you need a screw gun with Phillips bit, wood drills, masonry drills (maybe), stud finder, driving bits, and wall anchors and bolts. Open crate, mount...and ENJOY! Note...do not count on toggle anchors in wallboard to sustain mounts...you need solid backing.
11. Other. Occasionally, a hunter will say that he "thought" shipping costs were included in the trophy fee. In no way/place do we infer, imply, or state this. It is impossible to determine the cost of shipping for a trophy in that costs vary according to destination, trophy mount, combined shipping pricing, and size of crate. Shipping costs are not included in the trophy fee.

NB Safaris
Recommendations for Travel to/from South
Africa For
United States Hunters
By
NB Safaris Professional Staff

1. These recommendations have been prepared to assist our clients in making the most efficient and comfortable travel arrangements to and from South Africa.
2. Make sure your firearms paperwork and documentation are complete and correct. Refer to the instructions provided in this booklet.
3. Airline reservations are an area that can be fraught with disaster. Under no circumstances do we recommend travel with firearms through Europe, either coming to or returning from South Africa. Gun laws are draconian and paperwork for even in-transit status take time... possibly a lot of time. For further insight into European requirements read the monograph on the African Hunting website.
4. We do recommend that you travel on the direct flights to and from Atlanta to Johannesburg, respectively.

The outbound flight, Delta 200, departs Atlanta at 2005 hours and arrives Jo'burg 1700 hours the following day.

The return flight, Delta 201, departs Jo'burg 2025 hours and arrives Atlanta 0625 hours the next day.

Now, look at your hunt dates and our transfer dates to/fro the airport. Make your reservations so that you arrive and depart on a transfer day. Please note that our pickup time at the airport is late afternoon. These are 15+ hour direct flights. Please see our recommendations for comfort in Paragraph 6, below.

5. We highly recommend that you engage the services of a meet and greet subcontractor. We currently recommend either Gracy Travel, a US-based company with offices in South Africa or Afton Guest House.

Gracy Travel. will assist with the flight as well as the handling of your firearms documentation and expedite the processing of your permits with the Police. They will handle pre-approved permits, meet you inside the immigration and customs area, expedite your clearance through immigration, assist in securing your baggage, and get you to the South African Police Service gun clearance office where we will meet you. To make use of this service, you will have to book your travel through Gracy Travel Agency. The fee for this is payable directly to Gracy, and a fee is also charged for non-hunting members of the party.

Afton Guest House offers the same services as Gracy Travel, except they do not book your flight and travel accommodations. They will handle pre-approved permits, meet you inside the immigration and customs area, expedite your clearance through immigration, assist in securing your baggage, and get you to the South African Police Service gun clearance office where we will meet you. To make use of this service, you will have to contact Annelise and she will assist you with the filling out of the forms required to secure your permits. For your ease, I have included many of the documents with this pamphlet. Afton Guest House is highly recommended if you are the type of person who would prefer to book your travel without the use of a travel agency.

6. Other recommendations. Most of our clients travel coach class. Seats with extra leg room are available at a nominal extra charge. Many travelers report that noise-cancelling headsets make sleep easier and listening to movie dialogues clearer. Unless contraindicated, taking an aspirin just before flying and every eight hours thereafter, coupled with getting up and walking every two hours, helps prevent deep vein thrombosis.
7. Please contact your hunt representative or our main office if you need further assistance or information.

Afton Guest House

The courteous staff at the Afton Guest House will not only assist with any overnight stays you may or may not require prior to, or at the conclusion of your safari; they will help expedite your paperwork to get you through both customs and the SAPS office swiftly.

The website for Afton Guest House is: <http://www.aftonguesthouse.com> should you want to learn more about what they have to offer. The prices for their room accommodations are listed on the website for your convenience.

To book this service, email Annelise Bekker at aftongh@netactive.co.za with the following documents:

- Notarized Color Copy of the photo page of your US Passport
- Notarized copy of your US Customs Form 4457 for your rifle
- Flight Itinerary
- Invitation Letter
- SAPS form filled out per the instructions in this pamphlet

The fee for this service is $100.00, payable in cash to the representative that assists you at the SAPS office.

For an additional fee, you can be met as soon as you exit the airplane as opposed to once you clear the customs line in Johannesburg. These fees are based on the number in your party and as follows:

- $30 for one person
- $15 per person for two people
- $10 per person for three or more people

It is highly recommended that you make use of this service because it really does speed things along from the moment you exit the plane to the moment you meet the representative from NB Safaris. Should you have any questions, you can reach Annelise Bekker at +27-11-391-7625 (office) or on her cell phone at +27-83-444-4432.

GENERAL NOTES:

1. All documents must be either original or copies certified as a true copy of the original by a commissioner of oaths or the equivalent commissioning authority, should commissioners of oath not be a practice in the country concerned.
2. The Affidavit must be dated within 4 months of the first arrival or departure travel date. The same affidavit will still be valid for the departure or return in relation to the same journey regardless of the period of the journey. The "first travel" date is the date of first presentation for travel at the POE for a journey that will be completed when the traveller returns or departs to or from the Republic. Minors who started their journey before 1 June 2015 would not be required to produce the documents if the return leg thereof takes place after 1 June 2015.

3. Different combinations of the travel cases could occur, e.g. when dealing with a minor accompanied by a person who is not his or her biological child, the requirements relating to divorced or deceased parents must also be taken into account, where applicable. Minors accompanying school tours must also be dealt with in terms of this category of travellers.
4. The following types of Court Orders may be granted:
  - a) Court order granting full parental responsibilities and rights (previously called “sole custody”) or legal guardianship in respect of the minor: In this instance the consent of the other parent is not required;
  - b) Court order in which both parents are granted responsibilities and rights in respect of the minor: The consent of the other parents is required; and
  - c) Court orders that are silent on the parental responsibilities and rights: The consent of the other parent is required.
5. Visas
