The Red, White, Blue and Gold Raffle is almost all guns. We thought guns were more interesting to win than sporting items. The more pre-event ticket packages and Raffle Packs you buy, the more guns there will be to win! No limit!

The buckets are color coded and each color represents a different value gun. The white buckets (and white tickets) are the least expensive guns. The red bucket guns cost more than the white, blue bucket guns more than the red and the gold guns are the most expensive.

Raffle tickets come with the packages. They can also be bought straight out. The best deal is when you buy the packages that come with guns and tickets!
