

DID YOU KNOW?

The program began in 1988 and has reached more than 32 million children in 26,000 schools in all 50 states as of today.

Among children, fatal firearm accidents among the Eddie Eagle age group have been reduced over 65 percent since the nationwide program launch. Gun accident prevention programs such as Eddie Eagle are a significant factor in that decline.

In Tennessee, over 916,000 children have received Eddie Eagle's life-saving message since the program's inception and has been taught by 390 Tennessee law enforcement agencies and 320 Tennessee schools.

31 Tennessee law enforcement agencies also use the Eddie Eagle mascot costume to teach the program. Agencies using the Eddie Eagle mascot include the Knox County Sheriff's Office, Lawrence County Sheriff's Department, Madison County Sheriff's Office and Germantown Police Department.

The Program is funded 100% by the Tennessee Friends of NRA Events through the NRA Foundation grants. Each year Tennessee State Fund Grant Committee made up of Friends of NRA Volunteers vote and recommends a NRA Foundation Grant for the Eddie Eagle Program in Tennessee.
